H B M O M If you seek employment with ACS or volunteer for ACS, we will collect information related to your role. For instance, we will collect employment history information if you submit a resume to ACS. If you are volunteering to provide peer-to-peer support for cancer patients, we may ask about your demographic information or the languages you speak. Or, if you are volunteering to provide transportation assistance through our Road to Recovery program, we will collect information on your driving history. Depending on your role, we may also request a background check.

D M O B M O M If you inquire about (or enroll in) an ACS research study, we may collect information from you related to the study or studies, which may include health information. Research participant data is maintained in a secure, restricted environment and is accessed only for research purposes.

D M If you register to participate in a n ACS event, such as Relay For Life® or Making Strides Against Breast Cancer®, we may also ask about your relationship to cancer, but you are not required to provide this information to participate. This information, however, is useful for event purposes and helps us let you know about special activities for caregivers and survivors.

M B M B M A D M Your healthcare provider, health plan, or other third-party organization may put you in touch with ACS or, with your consent, provide ACS with information to contact you if they believe we have information or resources that can assist you with your care. These referrals may occur by phone, fax, or another referral method. If you are referred to ACS by a third party, we may receive contact and demographic information, as well as limited health information to provide relevant resources to you.

E O B If you partner with ACS to provide services, we may collect information such as name, employer, title, and business contact information. We collect this information for the purposes of contacting you about the partnership. If it is necessary for purposes of paying you for services provided, we may also collect bank account information, employer identification number or Social Security number, etc.

F M M M M B We may use or interact with third parties to conduct fundraising campaigns, promotions, or events, including online platforms. In these instances, we may receive access to donor reports which includes donor name, contact information, and donation amount. We also may receive your Personal Information if you respond to a cause-related marketing campaign or other promotion benefitting ACS that is conducted by a corporate partner.

E O M M O If you elect to connect your social media account to your Site account, certain Personal Information from your social media account will be shared with us, which may include Personal Information that is part of your profile or your friends' profiles; in addition, if you log-in to our website using your social media account, use a "like" button or use other social media features while visiting our website, those social media companies may collect information about you. Your interactions with social media companies and the use of their features are governed by their privacy policies.

O M O M You may provide Personal Information to features available through the Services that are powered by artificial intelligence technologies, including technologies provided by our vendors. These features vary in how they use your submitted Personal Information.

A E O We may receive your Personal Information from other sources, including ACS affiliates that you engage with such as the American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network, Inc. ("ACS CAN," our nonprofit, nonpartisan advocacy affiliate); third-party organizations we collaborate with to provide support services and information to cancer patients and their caregivers; or third-party data sources to supplement the information we collect from you.

How we may use your personal information

We and our service providers may use Personal Information for the following purposes:

M E A M The collection, use, and disclosure of your Personal Information will be consistent with our mission to eliminate cancer as a major public health problem. These activities include: the direct provision of cancer-related information, patient support programs, and services, mission support operations such as data analysis, program improvement, fundraising events, and activities, as well as providing, training, or otherwise supporting artificial intelligence technologies that power features you interact with.

If you are referred to ACS through your healthcare provider, health plan, or other third-party, we will use and disclose your Personal Information as necessary, including electronically, to provide you with the assistance, programs or services you have your social media account, you authorize us to share information with your social media account provider, and you understand that the use of the information we share will be governed by the social media provider's privacy policy. Please note that any information you post within these public forums or social media pages may become public and may be read, collected, and used by anyone. Please exercise caution when deciding whether to disclose your Personal Information in these forums.

Information with its service providers, program volunteers, and other third parties that assist ACS in furtherance of its mission; Personal Information is only shared with these third-parties pursuant to confidentiality requirements. In furtherance of our mission, your Personal Information m m l-

M M . You may choose to honor someone whose life has been impacted by cancer by making a donation in their name. Once your gift is received and you have requested a notification be sent to the honoree or family, ACS will send a card to the honoree or family acknowledging your gift. The amount of money donated through memorial or honor donations is kept confidential, but the individual (or their immediate family in the case of a memorial donation) may be provided with the name and address of those individuals who have donated in honor of their loved one, whether in the card itself or at the request of the honoree or family.

OM O M If you provide Personal Information to features available through the Services that are powered by artificial intelligence technologies provided by our vendors, we may disclose your Personal Information to such vendors.

A G O B M M We may also use and disclose your Personal Information as we believe to be necessary or appropriate: (a) to comply with applicable law, which may include laws outside your country of residence, to respond to requests from public and government authorities, which may include authorities outside your country of residence, to cooperate with law enforcement, or for other legal reasons; (b) to enforce our Terms of Use; (c) to protect our rights, privacy, safety or property, and/or that of our affiliates, you or others; and (d) under circumstances we believe appropriate to coordinate treatment related services with your provider or health plan, or for permissible public health purposes such as cancer surveillance. In addition, ACS may use, disclose or transfer your information to a third-party in the event of any reorganization, merger, sale, joint venture, assignment, transfer or other disposition of all or any portion of our organization (including in connection with any bankruptcy or similar proceedings).

L . In addition to the other disclosures described in this section, we may also disclose your information as you expressly authorize us to do so.

Donor Privacy

ACS shares personal information (including name, contact information, and donation history) in the context of cooperatives managed by third-party vendors Wiland, Epsilon, and M+R. The personal information provided is used by the third-party vendors to create a score or profile which may then be used to send solicitations on behalf of other organizations. These organizations will not have direct or continued access to your personal information unless you choose to provide it to them directly by responding to an appeal. We do not share health-related data in connection with these efforts. In addition, for the purposes of better stewarding our donors, publicly available biographic and financial information may be appended by third-party providers including Windfall and Merkle. For questions relating to the third party's collection of publicly available information, email support@windfall.com (for Windfall) and email dpous@merkleinc.com (for Merkle).

I NE F M OBM M M We collect standard web server traffic pattern information and your browsing history. General traffic, Site usage, browser information, and length of stay information are collected and stored in log files.

We use "cookies," small files that are sent to your web browser and stored on your computer's hard drive, to enhance your online experience. The cookies collect information about your use of our Services, such as the type of browser you use, your home domain or Internet service provider, your referrer URL (which is the URL for the website that you were viewing prior to visiting the website), how you were directed to the Services, which specific pages you accessed, how long you view each page, the time and date you access our Services and anonymous traffic data. If you do not want information collected using cookies, most browsers allow you to automatically decline cookies or be given the choice of declining or accepting a cookie (or cookies) from a website. You can also reject all but strictly necessary cookies by selecting the "Reject Cookies" option in the banner which appears when you enter the site, or you may choose specific cookies by selecting "Manage Cookies." You may also wish to refer to <http://www.allaboutcookies.org/manage-cookies/index.html>. If, however, you do not accept cookies, you may experience some inconvenience in your use of the Services.

G M M M O Pixel tags (also known as web beacons and clear GIFs) may be used to, among other things, track the online actions of users of the Services (including email recipients), measure the success of our marketing campaigns and compile statistics about usage of the Services and response rates.

FM A MD M . We may work with third-party service providers to target our advertisements and outreach to you based on your preferences or internet activity information, in certain cases combining data we collect from you through online cookies and other technologies with other de-identified data (such as a hashed, non-readable email or postal address). In addition, we may use third-party service providers to display content-specific advertisements to you after you have left our Sites when you go to other websites. These third-party service providers may use cookies, web beacons, or similar technologies, to tailor advertisements to interests shown by browsing our Sites or other by visiting other websites. We do not control the third-party service providers' tracking technologies or how they may be used. The collection of your information or use of technologies by third-party service providers are subject to those third parties' privacy policies, not ACS's.
