

cancer.org | 1.800.227.2345

Medicare Expands Telehealth to Help Seniors Stay Home

Published on: March 19, 2020

Written by: Stacy Simon Senior Editor, News

Medicare¹ has changed its policies to make it easier for older Americans to “see” their doctors without going in for an office visit. The idea is to allow more seniors to follow the advice of health experts and avoid being exposed to the coronavirus by staying home.

The American Cancer Society medical and editorial content teamOur team is made up of doctors and oncology certified nurses with deep knowledge of cancer care as well as journalists, editors, and translators with extensive experience in medical writing.

American Cancer Society news stories are copyrighted material and are not intended to be used as press releases³. For reprint requests, please see our Content Usage Policy (www.cancer.org/about-us/policies/content-usage.html).

cancer.org | 1.800.227.2345